VISION:

Love God, Love your neighbor and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ as an Orthodox Christian community. MISSION:

The mission of St. John the Baptist Greek Orthodox Church is to welcome and serve people with love, truth, joy and peace, and to create an environment that encourages all to seek salvation through Orthodox Christianity. CORE VALUES:

Love, Worship, Community, Learning, Service

SYNAXARION:

Second Sunday of Great Lent – St. Gregory Palamas The Holy Hieromartyr Hypatius, Bishop of Gangra; Theophilos the Martyr and those with him; Innocent, Enlightener of Siberia and Alaska

Apolyitikion of the Resurrection: When You descended to the realm of death, You as Life immortal, rendered to Hades a mortal blow, through Your Divine Radiance. And when You, from the depths of Hades and the darkness below, did raise the dead all the powers of heaven did proclaim and cry out: O life-giving Christ and our God we give glory.

Apolytikion of St. Gregory Palamas:

Orthodoxy's great star, support and teacher of the Church, the beauty of the Monks, and invincible protector of the Theologians, O Gregory worker of miracles, the pride of Thessalonica, preacher of grace, forever do you intercede, that our souls may be saved.

Apolytikion of St. John the Baptist: The memory of the just is observed with hymns of praise; for you O Forerunner the witness of the Lord is sufficient. You have proved to be truly more venerable than the prophets. Since you were granted to baptize in the river, the One Whom they proclaimed. Therefore, you strove for truth, proclaiming with joy the Good News, even to those in Hades: that God was manifested in the flesh, and takes away the sins of the world, and grants to us His great mercy.

Kontakion: Ti I-per-ma-cho stra-ti-go ta ni-ki-ti-ria, os li-tro-thi-sa ton di-non ef-cha-ri-sti-ri-a, a-nagra-fo si i po-lis sou The-o-to-ke. Al'os e-chu-sa to kra -tos a-pro-sma-chi-ton ek pan-di-on me kin-di-non elef-the-ro-son i-na kra-zo si:He-re nim-fi a-nim-fef-te.

Victorious Lady, mighty champion, defending us, we your servants, now inscribe to you this hymn of thanks, for you rescued us from suffering and tribulation. Theotokos, with your power that can never fail, keep us safe from every danger our whole life long. That we may cry to you: Rejoice, O Bride unwedded.

Welcome to all of our Visitors "Welcome one another just as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God." Romans 15:7 We pray that your worship experience with us today will be inspirational and uplifting. Please introduce yourself to an usher or a member of the Welcoming Ministry and pick-up a "welcome packet" as you exit the church. We are happy that you are with us today! Holy Communion is offered only to Orthodox Christians who are in good canonical standing with the church and who have prepared through prayer and fasting. Everyone is invited to receive the Antidoron (Blessed Bread) at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

Readings for Sunday, March 31

Epistle Lesson: Verse. The Lord is my strength and my song. The Lord has chastened me sorely.

The reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Hebrews. (Hebrews 1:10-14; 2:1-3)

And, "Thou, Lord, didst found the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of Thy hands; they will perish, but Thou remainest; they will all grow old like a garment, like a mantle thou wilt roll them up, and they will be changed. But Thou art the same, and Thy years will never end." But to what angel has He ever said, "Sit at my right hand till I make Thy enemies a stool for Thy feet"? Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to serve, for the sake of those who are to obtain salvation? Therefore we must pay the closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. For if the message declared by angels was valid and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard Him.

Gospel Lesson: Mark 2:1-12

And when Jesus returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that He was at home. And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, not even about the door; and He was preaching the word to them. And they came, bringing to Him a paralytic carried by four men. And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Him; and when they had made an opening, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic lay. And when Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "My son, your sins are forgiven." Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, "Why does this man speak thus? It is blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" And immediately Jesus, perceiving in His spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you question thus in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your pallet and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the paralytic— "I say to you, rise, take up your pallet and go home." And he rose, and immediately took up the pallet and went out before them all; so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

After the Great Entrance, you are invited to turn to page 63 of the spiral Divine Liturgy book to follow the different prayers and hymns of the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great, celebrated on the five Sundays of Great Lent.

Divine Liturgy to begin at 9:45 a.m. on the Sundays of Great Lent

Since the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great is offered on each Sunday of Lent, and this Divine Liturgy is slightly longer than the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, the Divine Liturgy will begin at 9:45 a.m. from March 24-April 28. The Choir will begin the Doxology at 9:35 a.m.

MORE MINISTRY NEWS & UPDATES

Sunday, March 31 - Second Sunday of Lent - St. Gregory Palamas

On the 2nd Sunday of Great Lent, which is called the "Sunday of St. Gregory Palamas," we commemorate the memory of St. Gregory Palamas, Archbishop of Salonica. He dedicated his life to Christ, even though he was raised in the royal palace of Constantinople. He withdrew to Mount Athos, where he lived an exemplary life of asceticism and scholarship. He defended the Faith against Garaam the Calabrian (who was against monasticism). He taught that divine grace is not created, but the uncreated energies of God are poured out through creation; otherwise, humanity could never have authentic communication with God. He was appointed Archbishop in 1349 and served with distinction; he died at the age of 63 and his relics rest in Salonica.

The service of the Great Compline will be read on the following Tuesdays of Lent—April 2, April 9, April 16 and April 23. It will also be celebrated on Monday, April 8. The Pre-Sanctified Liturgy is preceded by the reading of the 9th Hour, a short service with penitential prayers as well as the recitation of the Creed, a pre-requisite for the reception of Holy Communion. Service books for this service will be available. The Pre-Sanctified Liturgy will be celebrated on the following Wednesdays of Great Lent: Wednesday, April 3; Wednesday, April 10; Wednesday, April 17 and Wednesday, April 24. BED SHEETS AND BATH/HAND TOWELS NEEDED FOR HOMELESS AND VETERANS AT 'TAMPA HOPE'

The 'Community Outreach' and 'Veterans/1st Responders Ministries' are co-sponsoring a drive in April for the "Tampa Hope Homeless Shelter" on 3704 East 3rd Avenue in Tampa. There is an urgent need for bath and hand towels as well as bed sheets for a single bed. These items can be new or gently worn.

This is an excellent opportunity during our Lenten journey to demonstrate our love for our brothers and sisters in need. Please drop your items in the container in the Church Hall anytime during the month of April. We thank you in advance for your generous donation!

Women's Lenten Retreat Tremendous Success!

Nearly 70 women from the Tampa Bay area gathered at St. John's on Saturday, March 23rd to participate in a retreat led by Fr. Stavros. The topic - "The Important Roles of Women in the Bible" - provided important insights on many biblical figures from the Old and New Testaments and the lively discussion showed us how to make practical application of what was presented. Attendees commented: "Enjoyed the review of notable women and saints of the Bible as well as meeting new Orthodox ladies and hearing testimonials of the many ways God works in each of our lives". "The luncheon and desserts were delicious and an inspiration for tasty Lenten foods". "Kudos to the organizers, the entire St. John's parish and most of all, Fr. Stavros." Thank you to the Ladies of Philoptochos for organizing this beautiful event.
